#4 Falso Brad Pitt
Francia-Nigeria (2024)

Cuando Anne recibió un mensaje de 'Brad Pitt', pensó que era un milagro... o el inicio de un sueño.

Durante meses, la relación virtual se volvió intensa. Mensajes, llamadas y promesas de un futuro juntos la convencieron de que era real.

A woman with short blonde hair, wearing a grey sweater, is looking intently at a laptop screen. The screen displays a man in a hospital bed, looking distressed with his hands raised. The scene is lit with dramatic, low-key lighting, with shadows cast across the woman's face and the laptop keyboard. The background shows horizontal blinds, suggesting an office or home setting at night.

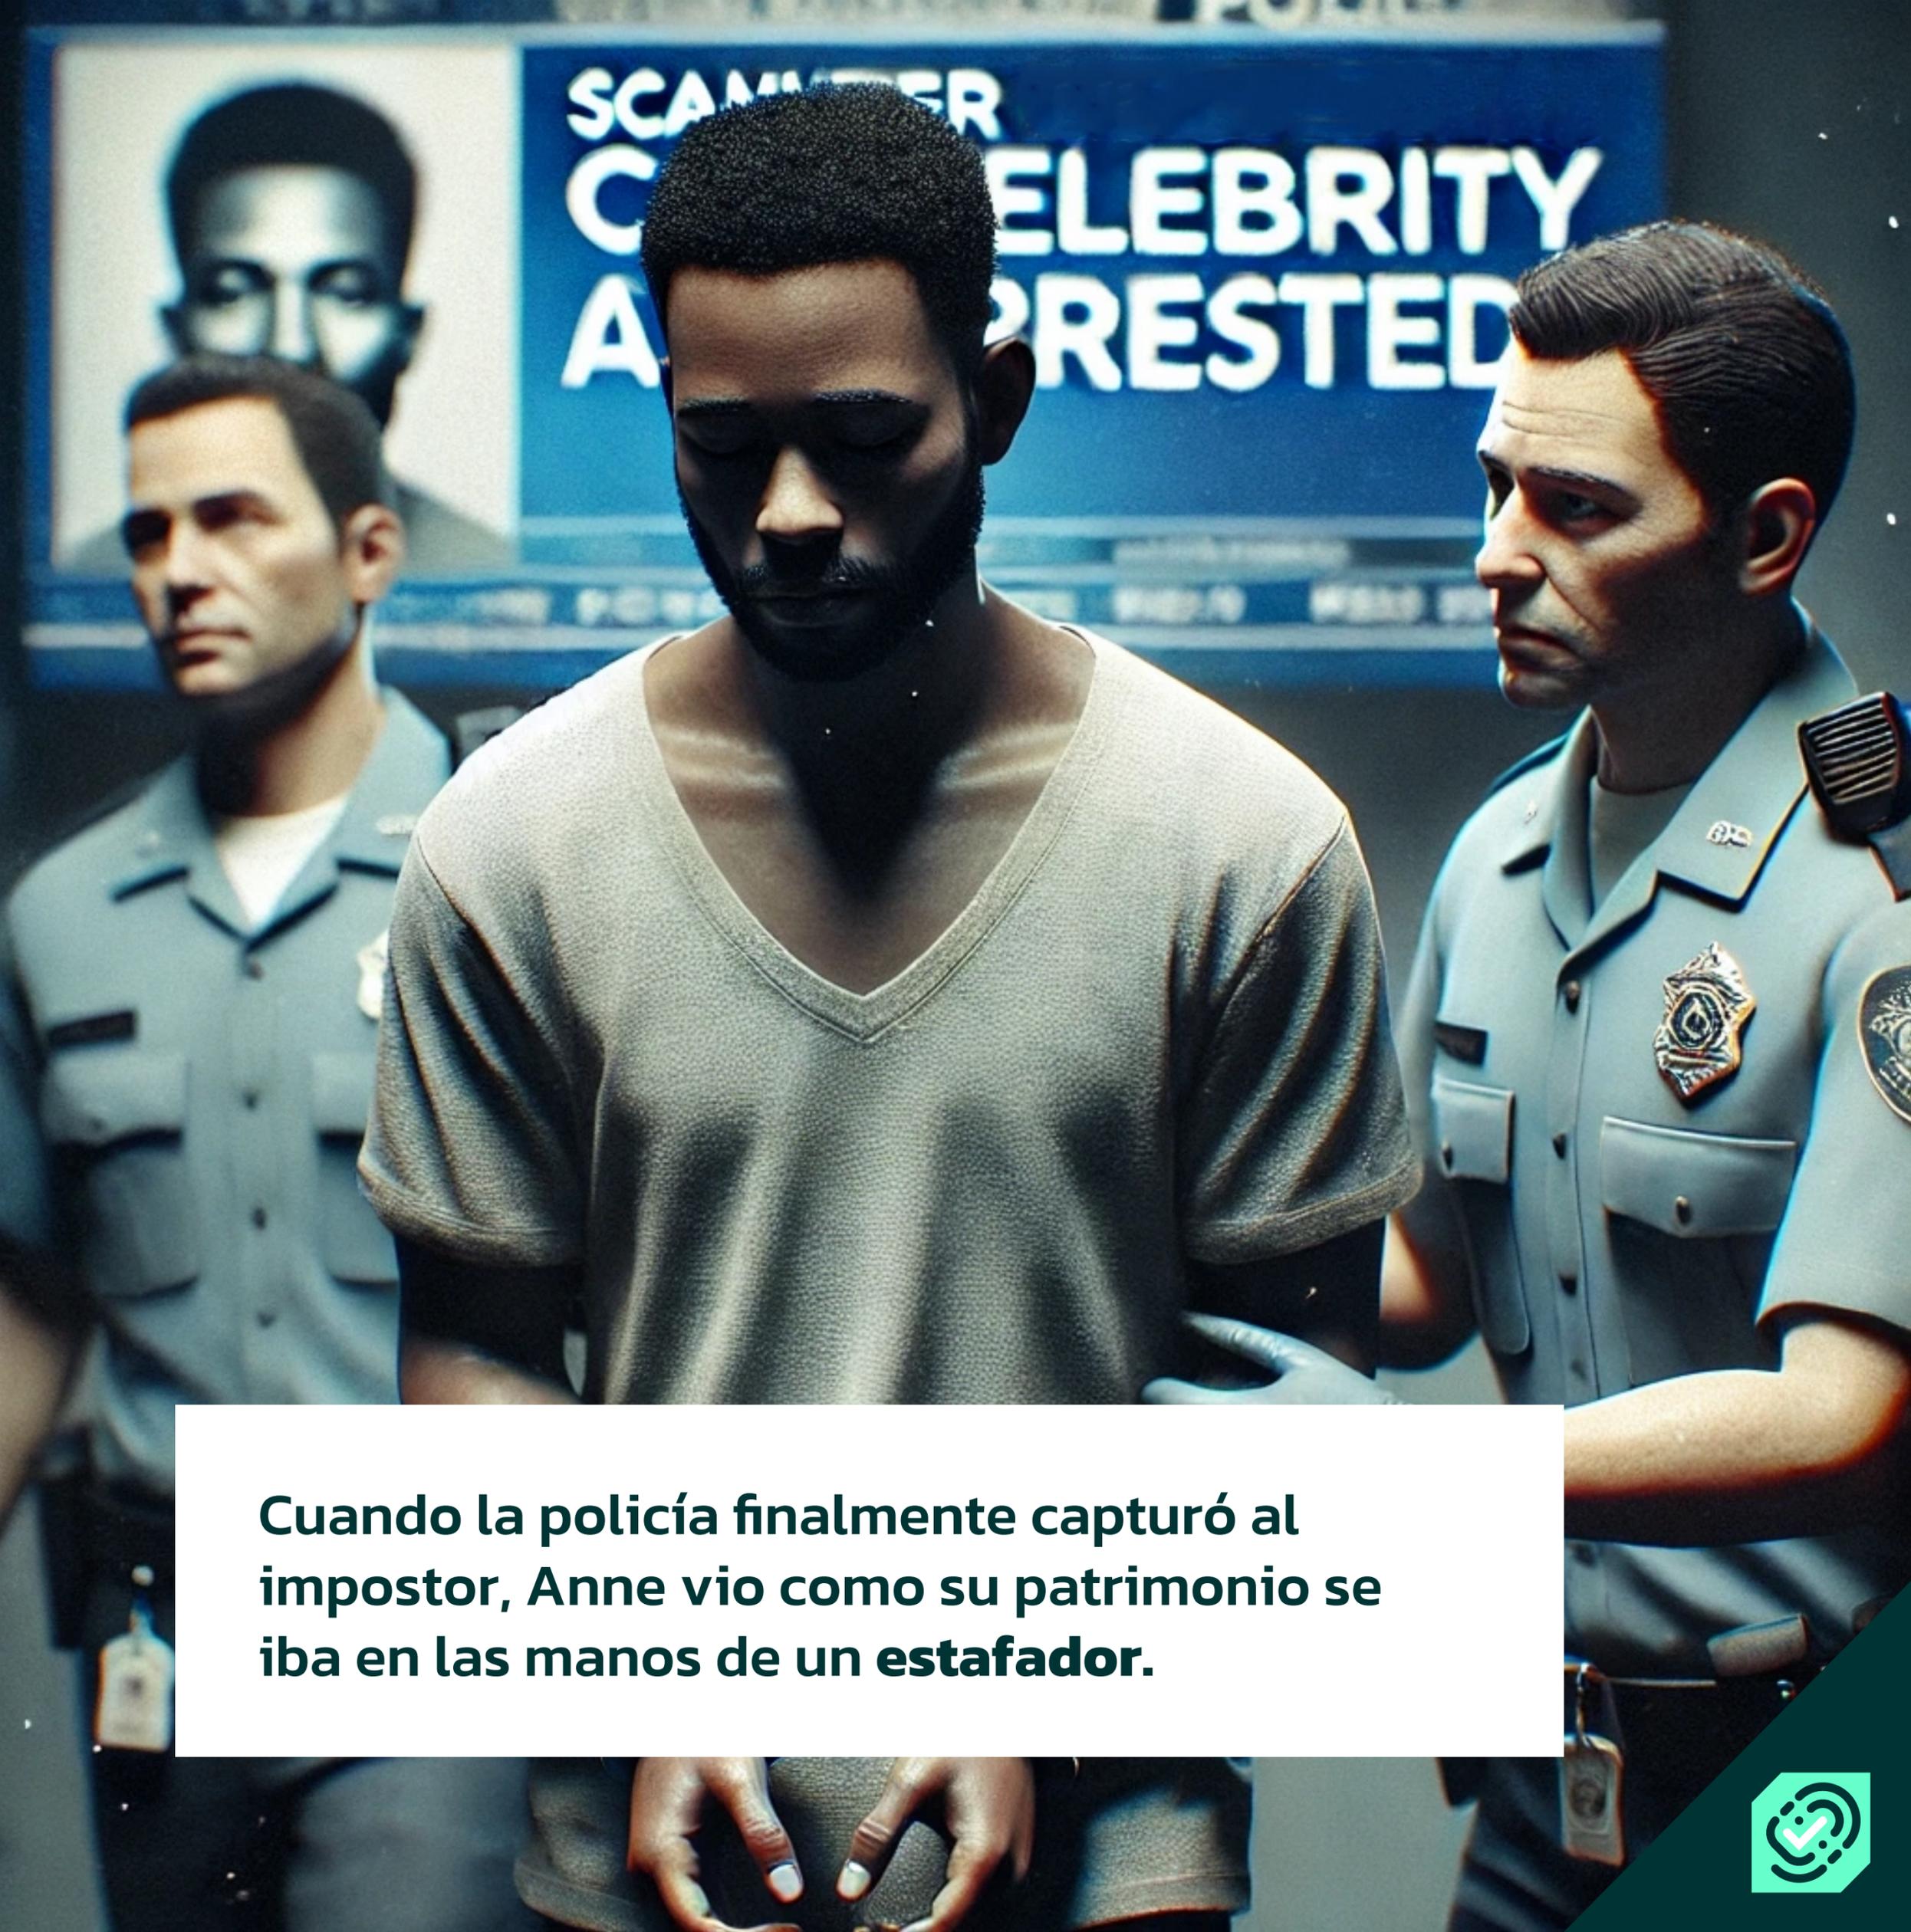

Luego vino la trampa. 'Brad' necesitaba dinero para resolver una 'emergencia'.

A woman with her hands on her head, looking distressed, sitting at a desk with papers. The scene is dimly lit, with a window in the background showing some light. The woman is wearing a blue and white striped shirt. Her expression is one of worry or frustration. The desk in front of her is cluttered with various papers and documents, some of which appear to be financial or legal in nature. The overall mood is one of stress and confusion.

Sophie envió más de 800 mil dólares. Pero el 'Brad Pitt' que amaba era realmente un suplantador.

Cuando la policía finalmente capturó al impostor, Anne vio como su patrimonio se iba en las manos de un estafador.
